Please don't look me away
I can prove Sir not insane Well you can see it in my eyes man it's not my fault I shake & quiver.

Please Mister P.H.D. don't lock me in a cell,
I can't I won't I will not be studied like a bug upon a pane of glass.
Thats not for me — Ah don't you know Sir I got to be free

Judge your honor please don't sign that paper I can't survive in such place

Well Sir not mad yet but I surely will be how long can you keep up this front of Normalcy

Take me away

That grooves the most

When you find the notch in life & give for to play it to the bone —

Opportunity only knocks once & believe me she ain't gonna hold no long dis. please
You get that I hope you do There's somebody out there a waiting for you.

Yours for more!
