Tumblin Flower

I grew up in a small town of only 400,000 souls & in my heart I was always determined to play that good old Rock & Roll

I was poor & had no home or anything worth giving & in my life I knew me thing & I wasn't sitten pretty.

Well it was looking bad for our hero folks & suicide seemed inviting but quitting goes against the grain Oh Yeah.

Friends I had I met once more they seemed to know, Doctors, lawyers & cocaine freeks!

Just like a tumblin flower I roll on for hour after hour On a long ride to nowhere I fear we've all been there before

Seems like I find power falling in clear streams from Powers Sparkling wisdom finds me searching fore was I thought we all were [illegible] nowhere.

Well, put yourself on the level of Mister average in the street
It ain't ~~[illegible]~~ super human feats well ~~[illegible]~~ your the average, don't ya see yeah

I live loved my life, meaning rite - never - in left brain Well I'm just here just living where my universe keeps on turning yeah.
